Location and History:

The Gallery of the Federation of Canadian Artists (FCA) is located at 1241 Cartwright Street, Vancouver BC, on Granville Island. Conveniently located across from the historic Granville Island hotel, Granville Island is known worldwide as a destination for arts and culture. The island boasts a vibrant cultural community of over 250 businesses, organizations and institutions dedicated to culture, tourism and the arts.

Founded in 1941 by Members of the Group of Seven, the Federation of Canadian Artists took up residence on the island in 1993. The organization was founded with the intent to promote and support the visual arts and visual artists in Canada. We achieve this through exhibition, networking and educational opportunities for emerging and established artists.
