All artists submitting to Federation Gallery must sign the entry form which declares that their artwork is not a copy, derivative or based on the work of others or in any way an infringement of copyright. The FCA reserves the right to reject submitted artwork that appears to be in direct violation of copyright law.

According to Canadian law the artist retains copyright of their work. By submitting to this exhibition, you allow the Federation of Canadian Artists permission to use your image on our website, posters and in other advertising media both printed and digital. The FCA reserves the right to refuse entries that are not accurately represented by the digital photograph submitted for jury. All artwork must be signed by the artist.

Artists may not enter a piece that was the result of a workshop or class. Only work that is new to the FCA's online galleries may be entered for this call. If your work has displayed in an online gallery before, it is not permitted.

DISPLAY: Successful artwork will display in an online-only exhibition, accessible from the www.artists.ca website from February 1 – April 31, 2017. In the event of a jury delay, these dates are subject to change.

INSURANCE: The FCA does not provide insurance for artwork. If the artist would like to insure their artwork during exhibition, they must do so themselves. Artists can choose to watermark their images to protect their copyright. While the FCA has prevention in place that doesn't allow copy and pasting from their online galleries, we cannot prevent the screenshot / print screen copies.

PRICING: Not for Sale and For Sale artworks are both permitted. Artists are informed immediately when sales are made either by phone or email. The FCA takes 35% commission on all sales, which the artist must factor in to their pricing at the time of submission. By participating in this exhibition, the artist agrees to allow the FCA to negotiate up to 10% from their submitted price to facilitate sales.

SALES: You must state if your artwork is part of a limited / unlimited print run in the description field during the submission process for transparency to our clients.

If your artwork can be printed and issued unlimited times, please state "Unlimited Prints Available" in the description field.
