

2017 Winter Visitor Guide

Canvas Unbound, February 14 - 26, 2017

Canvas Unbound releases art from the canvas and extends it out to the real world! This exhibition challenges the notion that to be “finished”, an artwork must be framed. Various styles and subjects

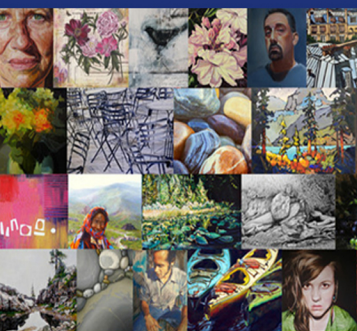

Abstract Exhibition

Abstract Exhibition, February 28 - March 11, 2017

With an emphasis on communication through the visual language of colour, shape, line and form, Abstract art has been offering an alternative take on artistic practice since the 19th century. Embrace the abstract!

Success!

Success!, March 14 - 26, 2017

Held annually at the Federation Gallery, Success! is a celebration of member artists who have progressed to either Associate or Senior Signature status this year. To reach this status, artists are required to present a portfolio of work to the Board of Governors for consideration. Successful portfolios are included in this exhibition, this is definitely one to see!

Bloom!

Bloom!, March 28 - April 9, 2017

In partnership with the Sogetsu school of Ikebana, the Federation brings to you a visual celebration of flowers, petals, buds, blooms and foliage. Floral artworks will display alongside floral arrangements from the students and sensei of the Sogetsu school of Japanese flower arranging.

Ode to Oils

Ode to Oils, April 11 - 23, 2017

A celebration of an age-old medium, this exhibition showcases the beautiful, buttery characteristics of oil paint and oil pastels. Artists were encouraged to explore both contemporary and traditional subjects and styles.
