

2017 Autumn Visitor Guide

Acrylics In Action: Sept 26 - Oct 8, 2017

This exhibition is a showcase of one of the most popular mediums of our time. Open to all subjects and styles, this celebration of acrylic artwork intends to demonstrate the versatility and freedom we have all come to love about this medium.

Annual International Representational Show: Oct 10 - 29, 2017

An open call to artists worldwide, A.I.R.S is a juried exhibition of representational and semi-representational original paintings, prints and drawings. Representational art retains semblance to reality while maintaining the creative subjectivity of the artist.

40° Below

40° Below: Oct 31 - Nov 12, 2017

A dynamic exhibition platform for artists aged 40 and under. This juried competition gives emerging artists a venue to explore new mediums such as digitally paintings, mixed media, tattoo art, and graphic design

MIX

MIX: Nov 14 - 26, 2017

It is about time mixed media had its own exhibition at the Federation of Canadian Artists! We are pleased to announce the FCA's first ever exhibition dedicated to mixed media artworks.

FCA Associate Signature Medal Show (AFCA)

New this year, a two week long show dedicated to the Associate members of the FCA, sparks competition as their juried work content for the Gold, Silver, and Bronze FCA medals.

FCA Senior Signature Medal Show (SFCA)

We are proud to offer our Senior members their own exhibition. Artists are encouraged to display their strongest work, with any theme or subject matter. This is a showcase of excellent caliber, as Senior members compete for the FCA Medals.
