Getting To Granville Island on Vancouver Sun Run Morning

On Sunday, April 22 the Vancouver Sun Run street closures along 4th and 6th Avenues will restrict access between 8:30 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. to Granville Island but we are open for business and want everyone to know!

Enjoy your regular Sunday morning fun on Granville Island on Vancouver Sun Run morning. The Public Market opens at 9:00 a.m. with lots of free parking and all of the usual delicious delights, shopping treasures and things to do for the whole family.

Take the designated alternate route beginning at Columbia Street and 1st Avenue and follow the signs. There are plenty of route markers, helpful traffic officers and volunteers to help you find your way. Normal traffic routes resume at 12:00 p.m.

#50 Bus Suspension of Service — Bus access to Granville Island will be unavailable for the morning of April 22. The #50 Bus will resume service to Granville Island at 2:00 pm and will follow the regular route from downtown.

Enjoy some of these other great ways to get to Granville Island:

- Cruise over to Granville Island aboard a ferry operated by False Creek Ferries and Aquabus Ferries from docks located on both sides of False Creek, including the Aquatic centre, the foot of Hornby Street, David Lam Park, Yaletown, Stamps Landing, the Maritime Museum and Science World. Check ferry schedules online at www.granvilleislandferries.bc.ca and www.theaquabus.com
- Walk, Bike, Blade the Seawall — one of the nicest views and most relaxing ways to reach Granville Island.
