SUBJECT MATTER: Pieces that tackle peace, trust, political dialogue, mutual understanding and/or cooperation. This could be symbolically through an abstract piece, or literally through figurative works that grapple with concepts of trust, landscapes that promote peaceful feeling. The definition is broad, but your intention to promote peace and trust through visual dialogue must shine through – use your description box to let us know why peace and trust are important to you, and how your submitted work reflects these notions.

PRESENTATION: Framed and unframed artwork are permitted for this call so long as unframed artworks meet the minimum depth requirement (see "SIZE" above). We will NOT accept pieces that are loose sheets of paper installed with tape or pins directly from the substrate. Artists can submit unframed pieces that are adhered to cradled wood panel or gallery wrapped canvas. Artists are responsible for learning how to adhere paper to these supports. If you do not want to frame your work and you do not know how to adhere to another support, this is not the submission call for you. Edges of works on cradled wood panel must be completely void of paint, or completely covered in a complimentary colour, or be a continuation of the artwork. Edges of work on gallery wrapped canvas can be either a complimentary colour or a continuation of the artwork. Raw canvas edges are not permitted. Staples must be on the back of gallery wrapped canvases.
