ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

This exhibition centers around the evocative concept of meaningful spaces and places. This expansive theme provides artists with the freedom to personally interpret and choose a space that invokes significance for them. Whether it's a nostalgic childhood home, a restaurant, or a classroom, artists are encouraged to delve into their unique perspectives. The goal is to explore mundane spaces and places asking: what makes this space special to you and why? To create a deeper understanding, artists are encouraged to provide a brief write-up on their submitted pieces. This exhibition is in collaboration with the Langley Arts Council, a registered charitable organization that aims to advocate, educate, and proliferate the growth of arts and culture in the City and Township of Langley.
