PERMISSIBLE SCULPTING MEDIA: stone, metal, glass, clay, wood, or ceramic.

EXCLUDED MEDIA: ivory, plaster, wax, reusable modeling compound, found objects, electronics, holography and other projected media, and fragile modeling media such as paper-mâché and salt dough.

Artwork must be “one-of-a-kind”, meaning that the production techniques expose each work to the possibility of uniqueness and where the reproduction series is limited to less than 200. All artworks must be finished to an archival standard and last up to a hundred years without a controlled display environment.

GENERAL PRESENTATION: All submissions must be able to be displayed by gallery staff without additional or special consideration. If an artist is successful at jury and delivers a piece that contravenes the Federation’s presentation requirements, the piece will be removed from the exhibition and returned to the artist at their expense, without refund. Works that arrive in disrepair will be fixed where possible, at the expense of the artist, or removed from the exhibition.

For display, the Federation has a limited supply of carpeted plinths. If accepted for exhibition, artists are welcome to supply their own display stands if they'd like.

SIZE: Fragile and sharp sculptures are not permitted. Sculptures may not exceed 80" tall x 36" wide. For heavy sculpture, sculptors must be prepared to install artwork themselves at a time and date of the Gallery Manager's choosing. While sculptors can advise where their pieces are displayed, ultimately the Fine Art Consultant will decide where sculptures are positioned. Sculptures cannot be so large they block wheelchair access around our gallery. Sculptures cannot demand special consideration like access to power or specialized lighting.
