GENERAL FCA SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

COPYRIGHT AND STANDARDS: While using photographs as reference for your artwork is a long-held accepted practice, using stock imagery or photographs taken by professional photographers other than the submitting artist are not permissible in our organization, even with permission or paid licensing. Artists submitting to Federation Gallery must sign a contract that declares their artwork is not a copy, derivative or based on the work of others or in any way an infringement of copyright. The FCA will reject submitted artwork that appears to be in violation of copyright law. The FCA reserves the right to refuse entries that are not accurately represented by the digital photograph submitted for jury. Artists may not enter a piece that was the result of a workshop or class. Only work that has not been accepted previously into another Federation online-only exhibition may be submitted. Work that has shown in a Chapter exhibition may be submitted, as long as it did not receive a prize award at that Chapter exhibition. Work that has displayed in the Federation Gallery may also be submitted, so long as it did not receive an award there.

INSURANCE: The FCA does not provide insurance for artwork. Artists are responsible for arranging their own insurance.

JURY: Entries will be reviewed by a panel of three jurors. Please check the submission page for juror names. Images will be reviewed independently online by each juror. All artists will receive emailed notifications of their results. Artists attempting to contact jurors directly in relation to their submission will be removed from the exhibition.

Your submitted pieces will receive one of the following jury results:

Accepted –artwork has been chosen for exhibition online

Declined - artwork was not chosen for exhibition this time

PRICING: This call for entry is open to available, sold and not for sale artwork. On the submission pages you will be prompted to enter a price, regardless of the sales status of the piece. In our experience, sold or not for sale artworks listed with a price encourage enquiries for commissions and similar pieces as the client already knows where they stand in relation to your asking prices. Artists cannot change submitted prices or availability (for sale to not for sale etc) at any time. The minimum price for artworks is $200. While there is no maximum price, if the artist cannot provide evidence of a recent sale in that price range, artworks with artificially inflated prices will be removed.

SALES: For artwork that is for sale, artwork is under contract with the Federation effective from the date notification emails are sent. If a sale is made artists will be informed by phone or email. By submitting their artwork to this call the artist agrees to allow the Federation to negotiate a sale on their behalf including up to 10% off of the artist's submitted sale price. Following a sale, payment to artists will be made by cheque. COMMISSION RATE: 65% to artist, 35% to Federation

The Federation Sales Team and Art Handler will work with artists to ensure pieces arrive to their clients. Clients are responsible for absorbing the shipping and delivery costs of their purchases.

SUBMITTING INFORMATION: Submitted images that are blurry, poorly cropped, display a background/frame, were made in error, or are the wrong orientation will be declined without refund. When submitting online, crop your image to exclude visible edges of substrate. The description of your piece should be one-two sentences long, aiming to encourage sales. This description will accompany your artwork on federationgallery.com Please proofread and spell check it. Artists cannot change details on their submission after the deadline for entries has passed. Attempts to change submitted information after the deadline, or when the artist delivers will not be honored.

REMOVAL FROM EXHIBITION: The Federation reserves the right to remove artwork from any exhibition at any time. If an artist withdraws or sells an "Accepted" artwork after receiving their notification email, for any reason, the artist is subject to a $100 removal fee. Artists will not be able to participate in future Federation exhibitions until this fee is paid. Artists removing "Accepted" artworks will also lose their online gallery representation. If you are unsure if you can honour a commitment to exhibit, do not submit. If artists have an interested client and they direct sales through the Federation prior to the exhibition start date, they will still be able to exhibit the work as "sold" for the duration of the exhibition and retain their associated Signature Status point.

HOW TO ENTER:

This call is open to Active, AFCA and SFCA Federation members in good standing who also hold Affiliation with one of the Federation's national Chapters. Submissions are accepted online at www.artists.ca Submit as early as possible to allow time for troubleshooting.
