COPYRIGHT AND STANDARDS: While using photographs as reference for your artwork is a long-held accepted practice, using stock imagery or photographs taken by professional photographers other than the submitting artist is not permissible in our organization, even with permission or paid licensing. Artists submitting to Federation Gallery must sign a contract that declares their artwork is not a copy, derivative, or based on the work of others or in any way an infringement of copyright. The FCA will reject submitted artwork that appears to violate copyright law. The FCA reserves the right to refuse entries that are not accurately represented by the digital photograph submitted for the jury.

Artists may not enter a piece that was the result of a workshop or class. Only work that has not been accepted previously into another Federation online-only exhibition may be submitted. Work that has been shown in a Chapter exhibition may be submitted.

INSURANCE: The FCA does not provide insurance for artwork. Artists are responsible for arranging their insurance.

JURY: Entries will be reviewed by a panel of three jurors. Please check the submission page for juror names. Images will be reviewed independently online by each juror. All artists will receive emailed notifications of their results. Artists attempting to contact jurors directly about their submission will be removed from the exhibition.

Your submitted pieces will receive one of the following jury results:

Declined –artwork was not chosen for the exhibition this time

While there is no maximum price, if the artist cannot provide evidence of a recent sale in that price range, artworks with artificially inflated prices will be removed.

SALES: For artwork that is for sale, the artwork is under contract with the Federation effective from the date notification emails are sent. If a sale is made artists will be informed by phone or email. The description of your piece should be one to two sentences long, aiming to enhance a viewer's interest in the artwork and encourage sales. Please proofread and spell-check it. Artists cannot change details on their submissions after the deadline for entries has passed. Attempts to change submitted information after the deadline, or when the artist delivers will not be honoured

REMOVAL FROM EXHIBITION: The Federation reserves the right to remove artwork from any exhibition at any time.
