GUIDELINES SPECIFIC TO THIS EXHIBITION

FORMAT: This is an in-gallery exhibition with online representation. Submitting artists, if accepted by the jury, will be required to deliver their sculptures to the gallery in Vancouver, BC, Canada for the feature. Artists cannot opt to display online only.

PERMISSIBLE SCULPTING MEDIA: stone, metal, glass, clay, wood, or ceramic.

EXCLUDED MEDIA: ivory, plaster, wax, reusable modeling compound, found objects, electronics, holography, and other projected media, and fragile modeling media such as paper-mâché and salt dough.

Artwork must be “one-of-a-kind”, meaning that the production techniques expose each work to the possibility of uniqueness and where the reproduction series is limited to less than 200. All artworks must be finished to an archival standard and last up to a hundred years without a controlled display environment.

GENERAL PRESENTATION: All submissions must be able to be displayed by gallery staff without additional or special consideration. If an artist is successful at the jury and delivers a piece that contravenes the Federation’s presentation requirements, the piece will be removed from the exhibition and returned to the artist at their expense, without refund. Works that arrive in disrepair will be fixed where possible, at the expense of the artist, or removed from the exhibition.

For display, the Federation has a limited supply of carpeted plinths. If accepted for exhibition, artists are welcome to supply their own display stands if they’d like.

SIZE: Fragile and sharp sculptures are not permitted. Sculptures may not exceed 36" tall and 24" wide. For heavy sculpture, sculptors must be prepared to install artwork themselves at a time and date of the Gallery Manager's choosing. While sculptors can advise where their pieces are displayed, ultimately the Fine Art Consultant will decide where sculptures are positioned. Sculptures cannot be so large they block wheelchair access around our gallery. Sculptures cannot demand special consideration like access to power or specialized lighting.

SUBJECT MATTER: Artworks that push boundaries and test your creative limits. For inspiration and to see what kinds of works are successful at entry, visit the online galleries for past exhibitions at federationgallery.com

STYLE: All styles permitted

GENERAL FCA SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

COPYRIGHT AND STANDARDS: While using photographs as reference for your artwork is a long-held accepted practice, using stock imagery or photographs taken by professional photographers other than the submitting artist is not permissible in our organization, even with permission or paid licensing. Artists submitting to Federation Gallery must sign a contract that declares their artwork is not a copy, derivative, or based on the work of others or in any way an infringement of copyright. The FCA will reject submitted artwork that appears to violate copyright law. The FCA reserves the right to refuse entries that are not accurately represented by the digital photograph submitted for the jury. Artists may not enter a piece that was the result of a workshop or class. Only work that is new to the Federation Gallery on Granville Island may be submitted. Work that has been shown in a Chapter exhibition may be submitted.

DELIVERY: Costs of shipping artworks to and from the gallery, including customs, import fees, or additional postage are the responsibility of the artist. If accepted by the jury, the artwork will be returned at the artist's expense OR the artist can provide a return prepaid waybill in their delivery shipment. Please direct questions regarding shipping to the Gallery Associate via shipping@artists.ca

INSURANCE: The FCA does not provide insurance for artwork. Artists are responsible for arranging their insurance during transit and exhibition.

JURY: Entries will be reviewed by a panel of three jurors. Please check the submission page for juror names. Images will be reviewed independently online by each juror. All artists will receive emailed notifications of their results. Artists may not send artworks that have not been juried and may not send artworks unless they receive an acceptance email. Artists attempting to contact jurors directly about their submission will be removed from the exhibition. Your submitted pieces will receive one of the following jury results:

Accepted –artwork has been chosen for exhibition online and in the gallery
Recognized – artwork has scored highly enough for exhibition but we're out of space! Recognized artwork is displayed online only at federationgallery.com
Declined - the artwork was not chosen for the exhibition this time

PRICING: All artwork must be available for sale. Artists cannot change submitted prices at any time. The minimum price for artwork is $200. While there is no maximum price, if the artist cannot provide evidence of a recent sale in that price range, artworks with artificially inflated prices will be removed.

SALES: Artwork is under contract with the Federation effective from the date notification emails are sent. Do not submit an artwork if you intend to sell it outside of the exhibition. If artists have an interested client and they direct sales through the Federation before the exhibition start date, the artwork can still be exhibited in the exhibition as “sold” for the duration of the exhibition and artists can retain their associated Elected Member Status point. If a sale is made artists will be informed by phone or email. If you have not heard from our sales team by the end of the exhibition, your artwork is unsold and will need collecting.

By submitting artwork to this call, artists agree to allow the Federation to negotiate a sale on their behalf including up to 10% off of the artist’s submitted sale price. Following a sale, payment to artists will be made by cheque within 30 days.

MEMBER COMMISSION RATE: 65% to artists, 35% to Federation.

NON-MEMBER COMMISSION RATE: 50% to artists, 50% to Federation.

Submitted images that are blurry, poorly cropped, display a distracting background, were made in error, under the incorrect intake, exceed the size restrictions, or are the wrong orientation will be declined without refund. In your description, please detail not only the specific artwork but also your related artistic practices, keeping it to a maximum of 200 words. This description will be printed on your in-gallery label as well as the exhibition catalog. Please proofread and spell-check it. Artists cannot change details on their submissions after the deadline for entries has passed. Attempts to change submitted information after the deadline, or when the artist delivers will not be honoured.

REMOVAL FROM EXHIBITION: The Federation reserves the right to remove artwork from any exhibition at any time. If an artist withdraws or sells an “Accepted” or “Recognized” artwork after receiving their notification email, for any reason, the artist is subject to a $100 removal fee. Artists will not be able to participate in future Federation exhibitions until this fee is paid. Artists removing “Accepted” or “Recognized” artworks will also lose any associated Elected Member Status points and their online gallery representation. If you are unsure if you can honour a commitment to exhibit, do not submit.
